Project

Field(s)	Towns, Cities, Municipalities, Rural, Culture, European Remembrance, Spanish Civil War, exiles, children of war, association of memories
Description	The project is focused to organize an interchange lessons to be learnt about the experience of children of war and recommendations for European citizens to understand, prevent and avoid risks with children. We are urged to understand consequences for Europe of today and future with children in coming from other countries under conflict (specially from Syria). We will develop a set of case studies throughout collecting memories of old people about its days as children in days before the start of Spanish Civil War, transform it into awareness materials and disseminate it in local and European seminars. CHISPAS would become a common European place for the study of impact of war in the life of children and as a way to recover memories across Europe to gain in experiences of risk to be prevented and wishes of older Europeans (still) to be accomplished and feasible to be done (as freedom to ride in bicycle …) .
