Short description	1. NON-PROFIT ASSOCIATION. In coherence with our name, ISEGORÍA, (equality of all in freedom of speech), our work is aimed to support the development of democracy, but we are independent from any political party. We have set up an open forum for discussion, analysis and reflection on issues such as the crisis of democracy, weakness of critical thinking or real problems of the world of work. Our will, efforts and ideas try to get better social and political debate, in the most inclusive and deliberative way as possible. 2. As an European Institute for Public Policies we also draft proposals to provide support and advice for efficiency in public management, skills for strategic planning in local government, digitization of public administration and a new model of participatory evaluation of public policies, along with the analysis and implementation of actions for the creation of green jobs and sustainable production and consumption.

Project

Field(s)	To debate on the future of Europe and risks of Euroscepticism promoting intercultural dialogue and mutual understanding, and fighting against bigotry and stigmatisation of immigrants and minorities.
Description	Developing these programme priorities: Non-formal training activities: debates, participatory workshops, seminars; research and other cultural activities such as forum cinema or art exhibitions and creation of a participatory website. We want to involve teachers in the elaboration of a didactic guide; to include the subject in a university summer school and to mount a travelling intercultural exhibition. Some of our professionals are volunteers, so we guarantee sustainability in the medium and long term. Our methodology is always active and participatory.
