Timetable of the project	30th April 2020 to 31st March 2022
Short description of the project, including its aims	Carlow sits within Ireland’s Ancient East. Its history stretches back thousands of years, ritual and religion have shaped the landscape. There are at least twenty two early saints associated with Carlow and its area. Some were born and spent their lives here; others came to be educated or to found monasteries It is a county rich in its archaeology and diversity of archaeological sites. 'Carlow - Trail of the Saints' is made up of three separate routes which between them cover the entire county of Carlow and feature some 51 ecclesiastical attractions. Many of these are deemed to be of international significance. Carlow’s ecclesiastical sites span at least fifteen centuries faithfully reflecting the county’s religious and cultural history over that time and interaction with other countries. With three partners we aim to; Use the subject of religious history as an area of common interest to participate in a range of activities involving diverse sections of community to promote discussion as to what solidarity means to different sections of society in today’s EU. Utilise the existing topic of common interest to mobilise and bring together citizens to express their solidarity through their shared values while simultaneously discussing the solidarity of EU citizens in the times we live in. Through travel, workshops and activities revolving around a central common theme promote mutual understanding, intercultural education and social engagement with a view to building long lasting and mutually beneficial relationships. Unite citizens in discussing solidarity within the EU through the mobilisation of citizens in travelling to partner countries establishing long lasting relationships.
Role of the partner organisations in the project	The project will require all partners to travel, host and attend workshops and activities, provide appropriate personnel to deliver the project, document

	and manage project data for valorisation, have the financial and organisational resources to participate in the project and be open to creating long term relationships.
