Project

Description	CO-PRODUCED PROJECT FROM SLOVAK REPUBLIC: "EUROPEAN PETRŽALKA" By World XXI, NGO Reflection that is loosely based on European motifs of famous British historian Keith Lowe [book of historical reflection of post-war situation after 1945, in Europe: Savage Continent] Our task is not only expert scientific consideration, as well as diverse artistic reflection. Also, we find survivors of pogroms and record their statements. We are looking for artists, as well as other individuals, which addresses this issue. The theme of the project is in particular the issue of freedom vs. oppression - in totalitarian regimes in recent European history [example: the German question, the Hungarian question, the Jewish question, excesses and pogroms on civilians – and consequently – artistic or emotional evaluation]. Europe: The Violent Continent – Europe affected by World War II MOTTO [...] Although the war officially ended in 1945, it lasted a decade before Europe back on their feet. The war has left thirty million victims and ravaged the economy and institutions - the police, the media, transport, local and national governments. Crime is out of control and people faced ever-present hunger. Lowe portrays through a varied selection of specific locations painting chaos of the first post-war year of revenge on enemies and collaborators, the revival of anti-Semitism, which ironically led to the liberation of prisoners of concentration camps, and other monstrous ethnic cleansing to rid homes tens of millions of people. Selling book, drawing on primary sources across the continent aspire to the basic manual on the history of post-war Europe, and its re-consolidation. Project and company web side: cinelife.sk Links on Project Production Teasers: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WMfiPjn1Z4&index=5&list=PLKE8DUTw2kA0Qv8JiuKEYERSBhP1qAe8g NOTE: We are connected with the academic and scientific institutions in
